

Montgomery is the third county in the State to settle her accounts with the Comptroller, and the other two counties only preceding her by a few days. When we consider that Messrs. R. D. and J. E. Mosley had their hands tied from about the first of April to the 15th of November last, there could be no higher testimonial to their efficiency as officers, these documents showing that they have accounted as required by law for all the taxes on their books. Our people do not mind paying their taxes when they know where the money goes:

CHANCELLOR LUTON has appointed Rufus P. McLean, of Lebanon, Clerk and Master of the Chancery Court of Wilson county, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of H. Y. Riddle, who was elected to Congress in place of Judge Fite, dec'd., on the 14th of December. Mr. McLean is said to be one of the best business men in this Chancery Division, and is a fine lawyer and polished gentleman. Those who know him best say that Judge Luton could not have appointed a more competent man in every way.

The Rev. Richard H. Wilmer, Bishop of Alabama, during his Episcopal visitation to this Parish last week, preached to large congregations, notwithstanding the inclement weather. All were pleased with the power and beauty of his discourses. The services on Sunday were unusually interesting, the rite of confirmation being administered to fifteen persons. The Bishop left for Mobile last Monday. The people of our city would be pleased to have another visit from him.

THE case of W. B. Gardner vs. the L. & N. R. R. was tried this week, the jury giving a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $3,000 damages. The case was fairly argued on both sides, P. G. Johnson, H. C. Merritt, Jno. J. West and T. L. Yancey appearing for the plaintiff, and W. A. Quarles, H. H. Lorton, C. G. Smith and W. M. Daniel for the defendants. We learn that the case will be taken to the Supreme Court.

GREENWOOD Cemetery is being made more beautiful every day. Mr. Scott is the right man in the right place as sexton. He has built up a beautiful rustic rockery, in which are planted vines and moss, in one of the little angles for ornamental trees, flowers, and has a green house full of rare plants and shrubs. Greenwood is already one of the handsomest cemeteries in the State.

McCAULEY & Co. advertise their large and fresh drugs, etc., in this issue. They have one of the best stocks in the country, and invite the public to call on them when in need of anything in their line.

The Doctor says he is so busy selling goods and attending to business in the store that he has no time to go "darning," and requests those indebted to them to call and settle their bills.

REV. DR. J. W. HOYTE, of this city, is in Louisville, where he hopes to secure a large addition to the endowment fund. He says $250,000 have been secured, and it is desired that $300,000 more shall be raised. For every sum of $25,000 raised a professorship will be established.

THERE is a bad place in the pavement on the South-side of Franklin street and West of Harrison & Son's store. While those who own property are compelled to make pavements, let those who have pavements in front of their property keep them in repair.

BILLIARD ROOM.—We learn that Mr. W. H. Hyman and Mr. J. O. Gavins, of Nashville, will in a few days, open a Billiard room over the Saloon and Restaurant of Mr. Louis Michel.

FOR SALE.—A milk cow—without calf—giving a little over one gallon of very rich milk per day. Price, $20 cash. Apply at this office.

LUNCHEON.—Louis Michel will set a free lunch of Sauer Kraut to-night at his restaurant.

Palmyra, April 8, 9.

Antioch, April 22, 23.

Our District Conference will be held at Martha's Chapel, on the Antioch circuit, some 8 miles south of Clarksville, beginning Thursday night, April 20, 1876, and will continue over the following Sunday. Bishop Whitman will preside.

UNCLE JACK, as he was familiarly termed, was born in Halifax county, North Carolina, March 9, 1807, and came to this place in 1820 or 1821, where he has since resided. Genial, kind and generous, he had made many friends in our community, and his death was felt by all classes, among a very large circle of acquaintances he was highly respected by all for his many virtues. Ever ready to assist, as far as lay in his power, the needy, he was known and loved by the poor throughout the community. He joined the Christian Church in this city last May, and since that time has led a consistent christian life, and died with a full hope of a blessed immortality beyond the grave. His remains were deposited in the City Cemetery, whither they were attended by a large procession of our citizens.

The following is from the London circular of John Stewart Oxley & Co., of the 5th inst:

"The import during the year was 21,563 hhds., the deliveries, 31,425 hhds., leaving the total aggregate stock 40,871 hhds., or 9,862 hhds. less than twelve months ago. On further examination of these figures it will be found, that as the stock of leaf shows an increase of 912 hhds., the whole of the decrease, with the exception of 104 hhds. of Maryland, is in stemmed tobacco. Of this tobacco, the existing stock on last inst., was 19,728 hhds., and as the deliveries during the past year were 14,506 hhds. (a net off of about 2,025 hhds., as compared with 1874), it is easy to calculate for how long a period the trade are still independent of further supplies, and our friends who are constantly in difficulty in forming an opinion of what is likely to be a safe basis for their stemming operations during the ensuing season."

We regret to learn that Col. W. W. Gates, editor and publisher of the "Whig Banner" at Jackson, has been compelled to suspend. We hope the old veteran will soon make such arrangements as will again throw his banner to the breeze. In his card he says:

"Whether or not I will be able to resume will depend on contingencies that must decide the question definitely, in two weeks. I desire to resume, and will make my best efforts to that end; if, however, I am not able to do so I will announce the fact, and make satisfactory arrangements with my patrons and take leave of the Press in a final Valedictory."

MULES.—On Monday, the 7th day of February next, Mr. Jno. C. Batson will sell in this city, either at private or public sale, some 12 or 14 young mules, from 3 to 4 years old. This will be a good opportunity for persons in want of such property, to supply themselves.

C. C. EVERETT has removed his stock of Confectioneries, etc., to the stand recently occupied by Post-office. He would be pleased to see his friends and the public generally.
